

C17c Understanding Fire Doors

Overview

To 'up-skill' contractors involved in the installation of passive fire protection as well as improve the knowledge base of those involved in the design, supply, inspection and maintenance of passive fire protection.

Who will benefit?

Those who have completed the 2 day Introduction to Passive Fire Protection course or equivalent. Contractors involved in the installation and maintenance of passive fire protection in buildings will benefit from this module. This 1 day course focuses on the legal requirements relating to fire doors, their installation and maintenance.

Learning outcomes

- describe the key features of fire door design and manufacture
- outline the regulatory requirements relating to fire doors
- identify the correct methods of fire door installation
- specify maintenance of fire doors best practice
- identify issues that will affect the required performance of fire resisting door sets
- be aware of the importance of 3rd party certification

Programme

- types and construction of fire doors
- glazing
- BS476 Pt. 22
- BS EN standards
- CE Marking
- Identification Schemes
- Access Control Systems
- Inspection, Maintenance and repairs
- Door Hardware Federation
- BS 8214
- assessment

This programme is part funded by CITB - Construction Skills Growth Fund.

Certification

- FPA Certificate
- ASFP/CITB approval
- IFE CPD Pending

Progression opportunities

- C06 Fire Risk Assessment
- V03 CFPA Europe Diploma in Fire Prevention

Course Information

Duration	FPA/ASFP Members	Price
1 day	Receive a 10% discount	£245 + VAT

Prices shown are per delegate.

For course dates, venues and to book this course online please visit www.thefpa.co.uk

In-House Training up to 16 delegates

Duration	FPA/ASFP Members	Price
1 day	Receive a 10% discount	£1600 + VAT

Prices exclude trainer travel and subsistence costs. To book this course please email training@thefpa.co.uk